The SPIRIT of 1957

Captured! The spirit of the 1956-1957 school year has been captured by the eye of a camera. Naturally, the camera could not record every moment of L.H.S.'s flight of '57; but, just as pressed flowers and theater programs are kept to provide a means of reminiscing delightful experiences, so do the photos in your annual provide a lasting treasure house of those "Moments to Remember".

Moments to Remember...

Here they are, those captured "Moments to Remember". They made the spirit of 1957. They form a scrapbook of your high school days--they show Lindbergh in all its seasons, in all its aspects, aims and moods. Here are never to be forgotten pictures of friends, faculty, classes, and social life. Here is an eye which aids you to remember laughter and tears, headaches and heartaches, frolicsome fun and diligent work, excitement and the years of growing up.

Perhaps, as you thumb through the book, you'll recall other pleasant memories and supplement "Moments to Remember" with your own recollections. Otherwise the wonderful moments might lie forgotten with the passing years.

Yes, contained within the covers of this book are moments to remember. Do you remember?

Dedication

We dedicate this book to the future Junior High School classes who in the coming years shall be calling the present building their school.

It has served us well in the past, for many a personality was molded and many a mind found knowledge here. Many a time the echo of fun resounded against these walls.

Our hope is that they may derive as much use and enjoyment from it in the future as we have in the memorable moments of the past.

They Guided Us

The Cooks --
The Health Consultant --
The Custodians --

These are the people who made our school life more enjoyable and healthy. They cooked for us, gave us aspirin and kept our school shining clean.

The Cooks

The cooks' homemade coffee cakes and hot meals really hit the spot on many a hungry lunch hour. Where else could you buy a plate lunch for 25¢ and milk for 2¢ a half pint?

The snack bar, which was initiated this year, eliminated confusion or long waits in line to buy milk and desserts -- and your ice cream couldn't melt before you got around to it, either!

Mrs. Heutel is the lunchroom supervisor for the R-8 District. She and the L.H.S. cafeteria received the first award for superlative achievement in food service and sanitation. The award was quite a distinction as the competition was roughly estimated at a quarter of a million cafeterias throughout the nation. These cafeterias included colleges, universities, public schools, camps and other schools.

The Custodians

The custodians drove our school busses and took care of our building. Who can forget when you slept that extra few minutes, and how your bus driver patiently waited for you to make the "mad dash" to the bus. He never failed to "beep" his horn and look for the signal to go on before he drove away. Remember the shouting throngs of students surrounding them and the water gun fights they endured? To these men with nerves of steel, we ask a big, "How could you stand it!"

CAFETERIAL SUPERINTENDENT
R-8 DISTRICT

Mrs. T. Huetel

The Health Consultant

The health consultant checked our hearing and our eyesight. She kept a dark-room not for photography but for our headaches. Mrs. Burbridge had quite a bit of territory to cover in a week's time because she was in charge of all the schools in the R-8 District.

English

Language is the Password to learning. In order to understand others and to be understood himself, man has always needed a common communication. For this reason language was created. Today it has become highly complex. Nevertheless a skillful use of our English language is essential to everyone in every phase of his life, whether it be social, recreational or vocational.

"Dig those crazy workbooks."

Watch your eye contact, Roger.

At Lindbergh three years of basic English are required. These three years incorporate the development of grammar rules, spelling and vocabulary work with creative writing and a study of literature. The sophomore year covers such studies as the memorization of passages from Julius Caesar, the writing of original poetry and a study of the novel's structure. Under the instruction of Mr. Van Rozelen, the students are introduced to the scanning of poetry. The junior year stresses familiarity with reference materials and is noted for the term papers Mrs. Wright assigns. The fourth year is optional, and combines the prose and poetry of English literature with the review of grammar.

An elective course is speech, which teaches the techniques of good speaking. This year Miss Jolly taught such things as proper breath control, extemporaneous speaking, and debating.

It's not "I", it's "me."

Science

In recent years, new discoveries and research have created a growing demand for more scientists. The scientific field is becoming increasingly important. In order to meet the present needs and to make progress, there will have to be an influx of trained young people--this is where the educational system is involved.

Lindbergh provides the student with four years of science; general science, biology, chemistry and physics. In biology a student becomes acquainted with the many kinds of living things and develops an understanding for the basis of life. Chemistry furnishes an explanation for many of the things about which we are naturally curious. Such as the composition of matter, the transformations which materials undergo, the reasons for changes and the energy changes which make them possible. The science of physics deals with the inanimate world, energy and matter and their interrelationships.

Watch those fingers!

Now, it says here

All in all the sciences require that which glares at one from the bulletin board in Mr. Merryman's room, "THINK!!"

Study, Study, Study!

This is England!

Social Studies

Every student at L.H.S. must take Citizenship, World History and American History in order to graduate. He may also elect to take Missouri History, American Government, or American Problems.

These courses under the instruction of Mr. B. Hornemann, Mr. Goodwin, Mr. Jaworski and Mr. Rushing have definite and important objectives. They help the student develop intelligent attitudes toward other nations, his nation, his state, his community, his family, and to accept his responsibilities to them.

This is accomplished through a thorough study of backgrounds, heritages, and present day problems. Instead of a memorization process in which great masses of historical data are to be recalled, historical trends are analyzed and evaluated. Thus, a student is enabled to grasp a better understanding of man's motivation and the results of his behavior. Emphasis is placed on discussion, group work, and individual projects rather than direct lecture.

Through such learning as this our ideals are hoped to be preserved and our understanding of our fellow men to be greatly enriched.

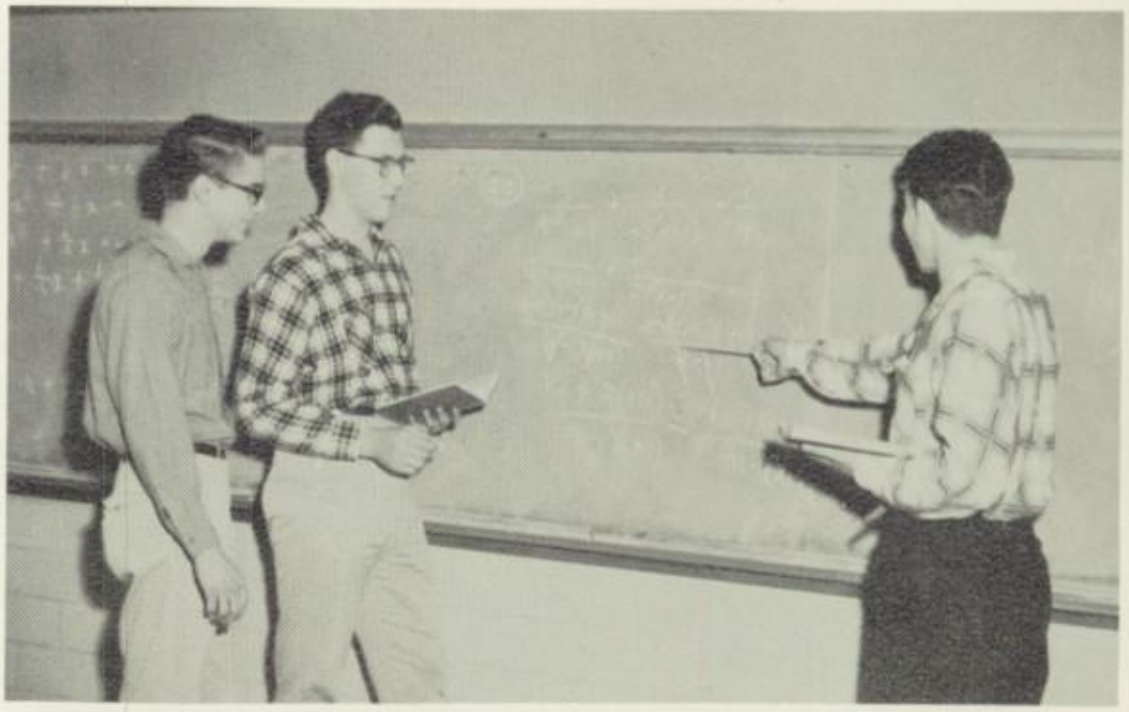
"Outline this chapter!"

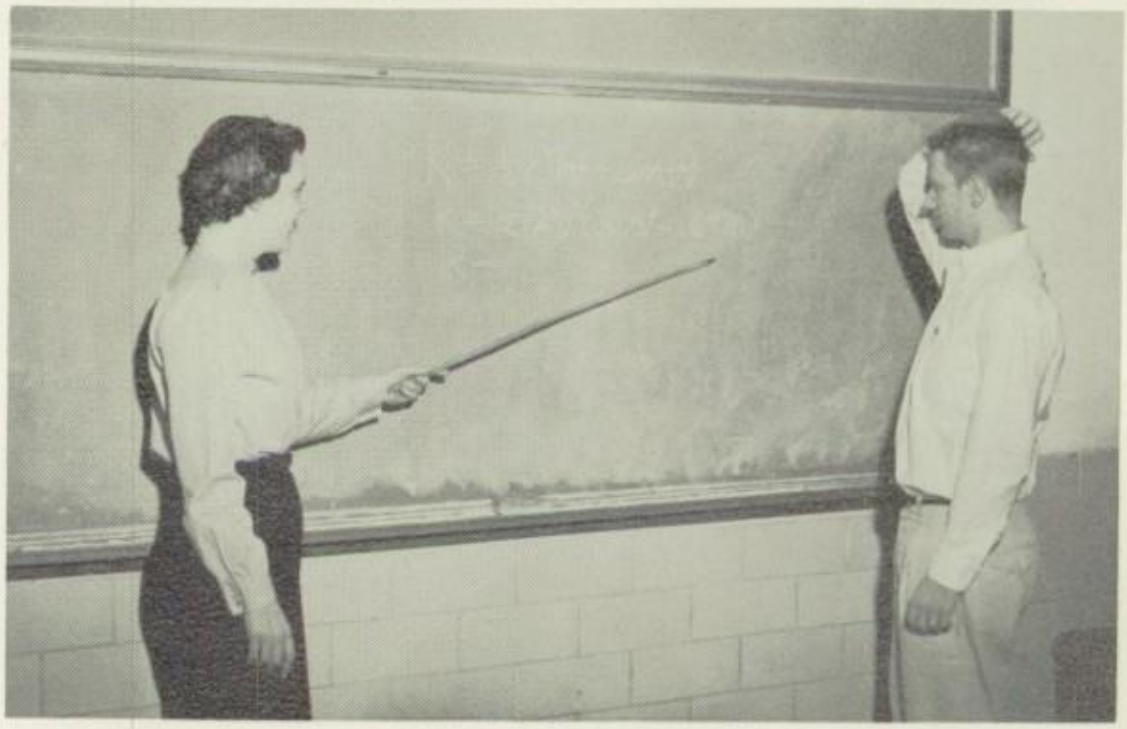
Math

Quote..."Ah, the beauty of math! It unfolds like a budding flower!"...unquote, Mr. Haeger, elementary, advanced and college algebra teacher, plane and solid geometry teacher and trigonometry teacher.

With teachers who feel so strongly about the subjects they teach, it is no wonder that the math students cannot leave the courses with a deep appreciation of them. Perhaps they will never have such a deep-seated love for math as their teacher, but you can be sure they will have a reverent attitude toward it--you would, too, if you "read, studied, devoured, and digested the beauty of math."

It is not only the math itself which will be of use later; the study habits acquired and the self-discipline it demands can be invaluable.





Simplicity in itself!

Mm-m-m, a budding flower huh?

Here's a little "ditty".

The nature of Lindbergh's courses builds character, exercises and develops logical thinking, and sends forth well-prepared students.

If anyone fails to derive the full benefits of the courses, he needs a "crying towel and a tear verse!"

One year of math or elementary algebra is required, although students usually take two years. If a vocation in science, architecture, or engineering is planned, four years are recommended.

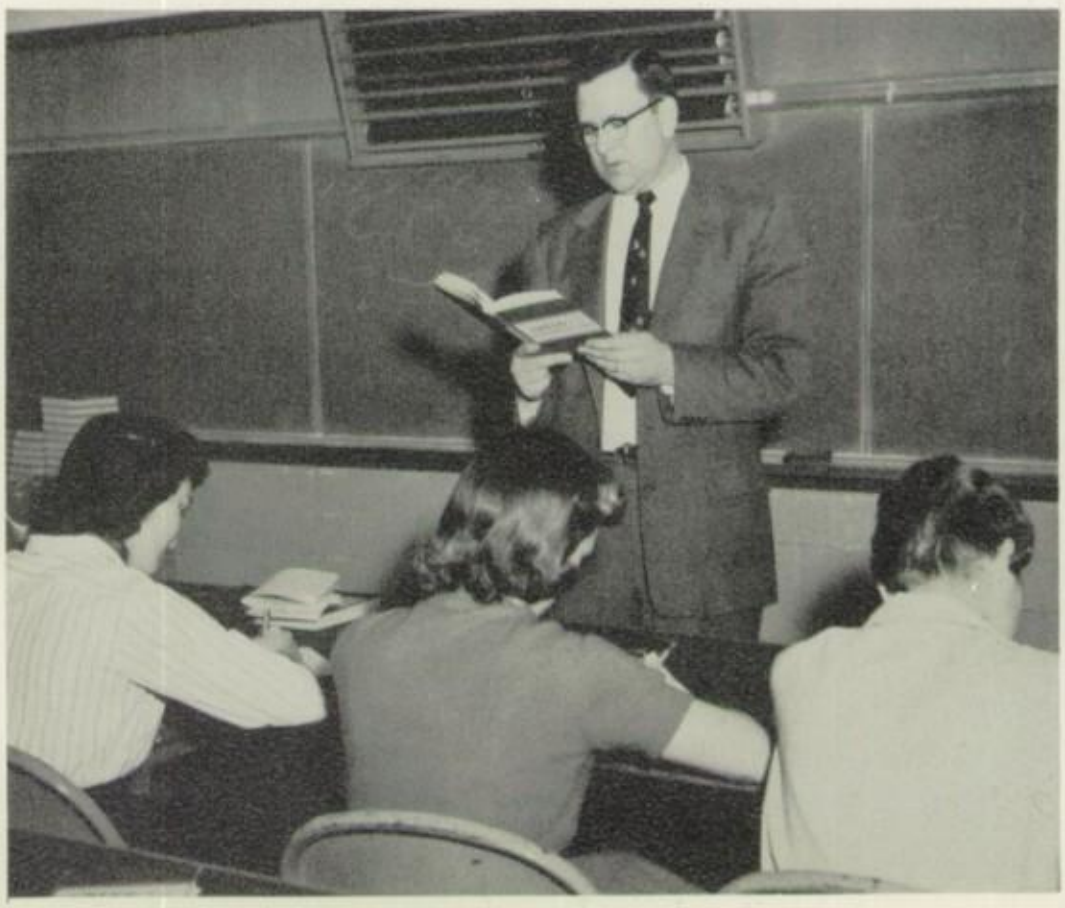
Business Courses

Because many of the students will not be going to college, but will enter the business world immediately upon graduation, Lindbergh offers a large number of business courses. Available are: Typing, Shorthand, General Business, Bookkeeping, and Secretarial Practice. Mr. Leonard, Miss Montgomery and Miss Smith are the instructors.

Buddy, buddy.

The Dictator



These courses train the student in skills he will need on the job. The first half unit of typing is valuable for personal use; the second half teaches information necessary for clerical work.

Gregg Shorthand Simplified is the beginning course to teach the ability to read shorthand notes rapidly, to take dictation easily and fluently, and to produce a quantity and quality of work adequate to meet office standards.

General Business is the study of everyday business practices which pertain to the present day life of the pupils.

Bookkeeping develops the student's habit of recording, summarizing and interpreting data for his own affairs and to increase his understanding of business organization. It is the foundation for vocational bookkeeping and accounting.

Fine Arts

The fine arts offer various opportunities for a student to express his emotions in a creative sense. Whether it is art, music, or the drama, he is exposed to new forms of self-expression, which develop discriminative taste and an appreciation of the aesthetic values in life.

The three years of Mrs. Lancaster's art courses teach the history of art as well as the manual skills and essential techniques.

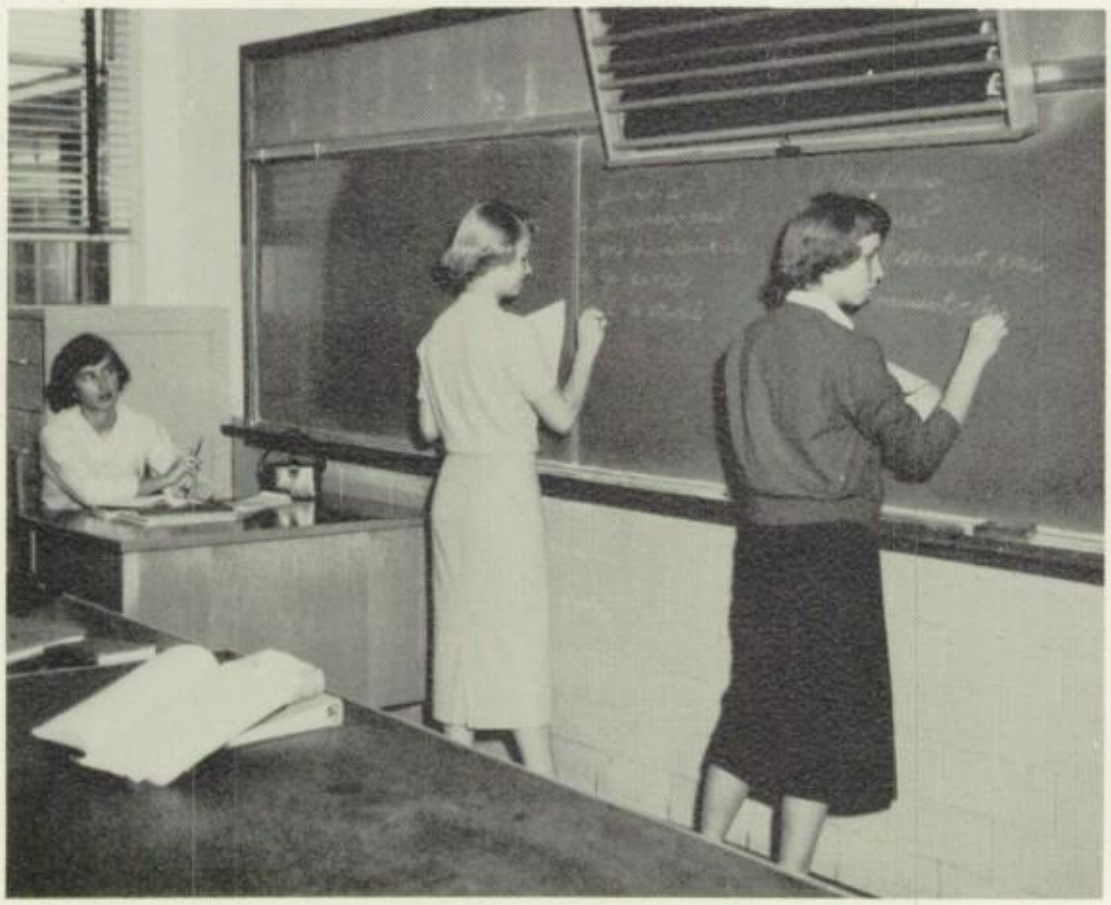
"Pretty good, Rich."

I'll bet you don't "Sprechen Sie Deutsch?"



Foreign Languages

There were only two foreign languages offered this year at L.H.S. One was French I, taught by Mrs. Little; and the other was Latin I and II, taught by Miss Smith.

French I is primarily designed to give students a small amount of skill in speaking and understanding the language, and a moderate skill in reading and writing it. Latin I is the study of grammatical constructions with both translations and writing lessons. Latin II stresses the reading and appreciation of Roman authors, particularly Caesar. Latin is beneficial in providing a sound background for the study of other Romance languages or professions.

Both French and Latin teach the student about the people, their country and their culture, as well as increasing the student's skill with the English language.

Physical Education

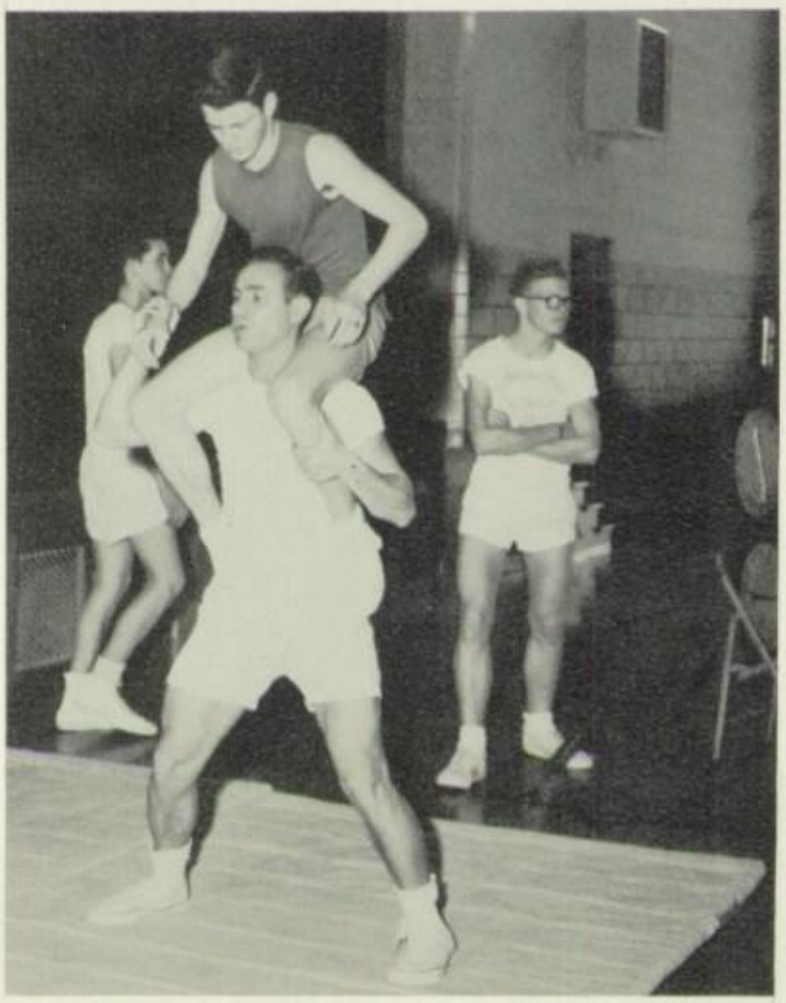
All manner of things were taught in the Phyical Education classes at L.H.S. this year. In addition to the regular Tuesday and Friday gym classes, the boys had health classes taught by Mr. Stewart and Mr. Jaworski.

Some of Mrs. Jost's classes and Mr. Jaworski's classes participated in a combined program of ballroom dancing. The students learned such dances as the jitterbug, waltz, fox trot, rhumba and polka. The instructions came in quite handy for school dances and other occasions.

The girls learned archery, hockey, basketball, volleyball and tumbling, while the boys concentrated on physical fitness programs, softball, touch football, soccer, badminton, tumbling, basketball, volleyball, handball and relays.

This work is valuable in order to maintain health and a feeling of well-being, to develop an interest in leisure time physical activities and to help mold character through teamwork, co-operation and good sportsmanship.

All these qualities contribute to build more attractive, alert and pleasant young people.



Lights Out!

Practical Arts

The Practical Arts include courses which a student may put into practice in his or her daily life. These skills may be applied at home or on a job.

For girls there are three years of home economics which prepare them for the responsibilities and activities involved in homemaking and family living. It teaches personal and social development, cooking, sewing, interior decorating and budget planning.

In the boys' division are woodworking, general shop, drafting and general metals. These industrial courses are aids to future men and the introduction to the skills and materials needed in professional jobs. General shop includes drawing and planning, woodworking, metal working and welding. The other courses, woodworking, drafting and general metals, give the students more specialized training in their respective fields.

Another practical course is Driver Education. It is the most effective, long range means of reducing traffic accidents. It develops driving skills and also gives a basic knowledge of traffic laws, operation and maintenance of a car and the safety factors in driving.

The High and The Mighty

What an apt description of the Senior Class which has led the school this year. It has produced leaders of outstanding caliber and character. Distinguishing themselves in many fields, in and outside of Lindbergh High School, they boast champions in sports, presidents of clubs, queens, the editor of the annual and the newspaper, outstanding scholars (three won National Merit Scholarship Recommendations), and leaders in everyday activities.

They have pleasant memories of the past four years. Some of the moments are never to be forgotten; others of less importance will nostalgically pop up now and then.

Perhaps they will recall: the dungeon at Sappington School; the time when some of them had three straight hours in Mr. Hornemann's class; Mr. Canary Bird; Mr. Lunte's science trip to Rockwood's Reservation; the modern dances presented by nine girls of the class for the St. Pat's Dance; the Junior Halloween Party; the Junior-Senior Proms at LeChateau and the Biltmore; "Maudie And The Opposite Sex"; "Spit out your cud, and take your stance!"; the first football game won by our varsity team; "Hay Rake" and school policy; the time the roof was reported to have been blown off the school; the graduation party at Clara Hempelman's Hall; the Senior Trip to Washington D.C. and New York; and finally, Amen!

Yes, their pages of moments to remember are many and colorful; and they leave not without some regrets. But they are thankful for the moments of fun, learning, and guidance they received here. "They are not soon to be forgotten!"

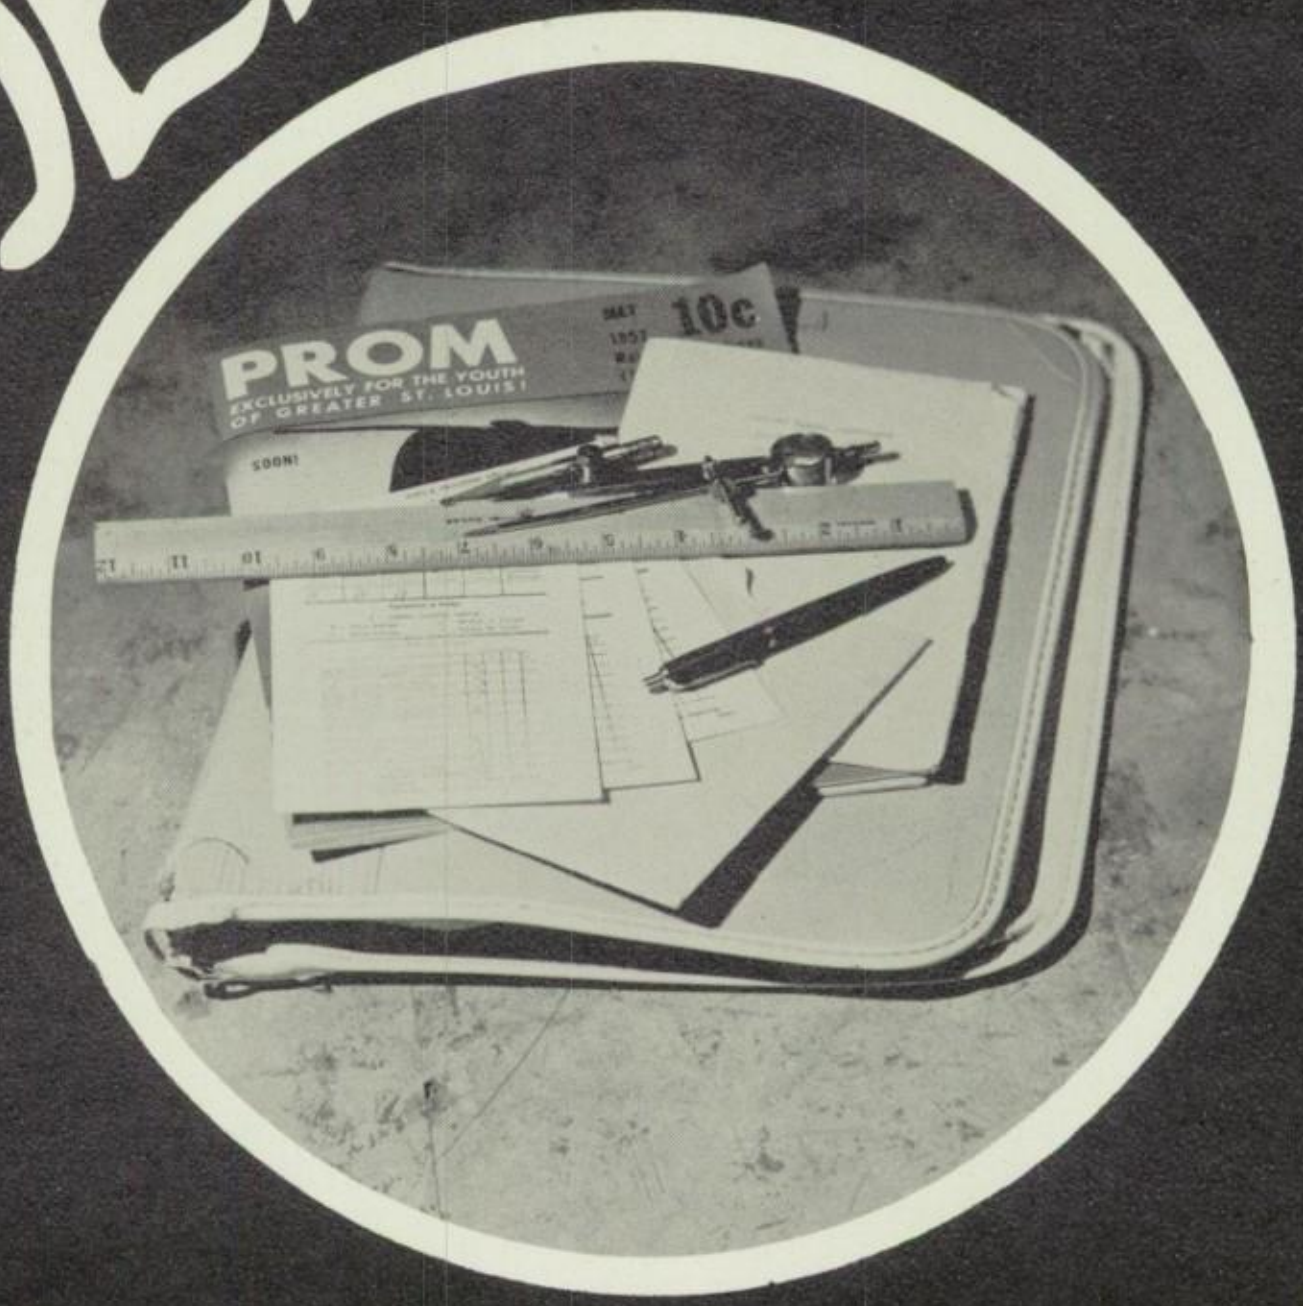
UNDERGRADS



JUNIOR CLASS

The Juniors are next in line for promotion. The coming year will see them leading L.H.S. to new fame, glory and ratings--they hope.

Nevertheless, they did quite well for themselves in everything that they undertook this year. We remember that their musicians were the backbone of the bands. With some aspiring to become "real cool" West Coast jazz artists, and others to become "real hot" rock and rollers, the school was supplied with several enthusiastic combos.

They participated in all school activities and had a few of their own. They supplied 7 of the 10 cheerleaders, were adequately represented on all the athletic teams and had 3 maids at the Snow Queen Dance and Prom.

The Junior Class Play, "The Family Nobody Wanted" was directed by their sponsor, Miss Smith, and was a huge success.

But the really big triumph was the Junior-Senior Prom. The whole of their class treasury, which included the profits from the Junior Class Play, financed the dinner dance. Because of this, the Seniors came cost free.

With determination and high hopes the Juniors are anxiously awaiting the "best year of their school days". We hope they succeed in all their ambitions.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

A group to keep your eye on is the class of '59--this year's sophomores. Although this was their first year in the Senior High, they have proved themselves to be highly capable, talented and hard working. The sophomores truly became full-fledged Senior Highers when they elected their representatives to the Senior High Student Council in Sept. of '56. It was not long before they began to feel at home with their new status and enthusiastically took advantage of their new privileges. Joining clubs and athletic teams they worked diligently and learned much. Their voices were raised in musical harmony in the chorus groups. They sweated tears of perspiration to contribute articles to the newspaper. They were exposed to the beauty of geometry and the insides of frogs as well as the reading of Julius Caesar. Their brains were selected as probationary members to the honor society, and their brawn made names for themselves in athletics. These are up and coming students, soon to be Lindbergh's leaders. They will continue to learn and go onward to new goals of achievement. Here's to 'em!!

ATHLETICS

One of the largest organizations at Lindbergh is the G.A.A., or the Girls' Athletic Association. It provides an opportunity for the girls to find recreation and an outlet from the pent-up tension of studies and the sedentary activities of the school day. This is especially important due to the fact that the girls have no other organized athletic programs beside physical education.

Sponsored by the very capable Mrs. Jost, G.A.A. offered a program of intramural and interschool sports activities. The season began with archery and later progressed to basketball and volleyball.

This was the first year that the girls had a varsity hockey team. Although it played only one game, and was defeated, it did set a precedent which we hope will be followed.

It was the third year for the varsity and B-team volleyball teams. They had a heavy schedule playing such schools as Mehlville, Bayless and Affton.

The goal of every member is the G.A.A. letter which is earned by accumulating 500 points. This is not as simple as it sounds, however, when you stop to consider that you receive only 3 points for attending meetings. It is the steady building up of points earned by playing in intramural and interschool games that really add up. For every 300 points over the original 500, a girl receives a chevron.

The basketball games were intramural; the final playoffs were between Senior I, Junior II and Sophomore V. The winners were first place Senior I; second place Junior II; third place Sophomore V.

The G.A.A. is Lindbergh's organized cheering section or pep club. Having been taught the cheers by the cheerleaders, the girls dress uniformly and sit together at games--an added incentive is that G.A.A. points are given for attending games. Any girl that misses 3 consecutive games without sufficient reason is dropped from the Pep Club.

The always popular St. Patrick's Dance was again sponsored by the G.A.A. Mr. Goodwin was crowned Good St. Pat as Mr. Van Ronzelen stepped aside. Others in his majesty's court included Mr. Reep, and leprechauns. The wearin' o' the green characterized the typical spirit of the evening to mention nothing of the ever present spirit of the girls.

Football

The football season started early for Lindbergh, August 27th, under the coaching of Mr. Van Ronzelen and Mr. Haegar. Of course, the first few days of practice are spent in learning the fundamentals of the game, instead of the complex patterns and plays that make up a game during season. The Flyers were greatly helped by new students who transferred from other schools, plus last year's players. The piloting of the pigskin team was given to Captain Tom Hull and his co-captains. It was a letdown and a disappointment to the team after beating Lutheran in their first game, that the following games did not follow its pattern.

Lindbergh 13 - Lutheran 0 Wellston Stadium Sat. Sept. 15th.

The Lindbergh Gridiron nine started off to a flying season in football this year by crushing the Lutheran Crusaders. Brothers Ron and Bob Zagar scored both the Flyer's touchdowns. Bob battled his way into the end zone from two yards out late in the first quarter for the Flyers first score. Jim Doehring kicked the extra point. In the second period, Ron caught a 41 yard pass from Gary Cole for the second scoring.

Lindbergh 0 - Fulton 19 Home Sat. Sept. 22nd.

The Fulton Hornets jolted the Flyers in L.H.S.'s second game of the season by good defense. The Flyers succeeded in making good runs but lost the ball on downs and had to punt. The only real opportunities the Flyers had to score was in the second quarter when they advanced the ball to the three yard line; but time ran out, ending the first half.

Lindbergh 13 - Lebanon 26 There Friday, Sept. 28th.

The Fulton Yellowjackets smashed ahead on Friday night, Sept. 28th to leave the Flyers trailing them with a score of 0-13 at the half time. By the end of the third quarter the score was 0-26 when the Flyers broke loose as the fourth quarter began. Ron Zagar went over the goal line on a 23 yard pass and Wayne Johner scored a touchdown from the 4 yard line. The Flyers could have played a better game but playing under the lights plus an injury to Capt. Tom Hull were hindering factors for the team.

Lindbergh 0 - Riverview Gardens 26 Home Sat. Oct. 6th.

The Rams upset the Flyers when they snatched the ball for two touchdowns in the second quarter and plowed their way through for one more in each of the following quarters -- plus two points on a conversion for the last goal. The Flyers were caught off guard when the Rams called their signals right from the line of scrimmage making for quick unexpected plays.

Lindbergh 0 - Wellston 25 Wellston Stadium Sat. Oct. 13th.

This 13th was a very unlucky day indeed for the Flyers. Wellston jumped to a quick lead when they scored three pigskins over the goal line in the first quarter; the second quarter, Wellston scored again on a one yard plunge...the Flyers lost their best opportunity to score in the third quarter when they lost the ball on the 15 yard line.

Lindbergh 12 - Hazelwood 12 There Sat. Oct. 20th.

The Hazelwood Hornets led 6-0 until late in the second quarter when Nelson Lily, a freshman for the Flyers, scored by going around end. The Flyers filled with the winning spirit, scored late in the third quarter when Ron Zagar passed to Steve Kopcha for a touchdown; the Hornets, the last 15 seconds, retaliated with the pass that tied the game. It may have been a heartbreaker for the Flyers, but their morale was uplifted by the spirit shown in this game.

Lindbergh 6 - Brentwood 41 Home Sat. Oct. 27th.

The Brentwood Eagles scored once in the first quarter, but broke the game wide open in the second quarter when they piled up 20 more points ending the first half with a score of 0-27. Having scored only once in the third quarter, they entered the fourth to find their opponents ready to fight to the very end. After Ron Zagar reached the Eagles 30 yard line, he passed to Steve Kopcha who scored the Flyers only touchdown. Brentwood racked up one more touchdown this quarter. The Eagles were able to ride over the Flyers with more experienced men on their team plus a better balance in player position.

Lindbergh 18 - Pattonville 41 Home Sat. Nov. 3rd.

Pattonville ran up a 34-0 half time lead and held off the Flyers in the final periods to defeat them 41 to 18. The Flyers started their ground attack in the second half by producing three tallies. Dick Brown went over the goal line on a quarterback sneak. Nelson Lily ran right in for 50 yards and a touchdown late in the third quarter. Gary Cole added the final touchdown in the fourth quarter when he swept over right end for 45 yards and a touchdown. Bob Muhlholland and Frank Follmer were doing a good job on defense and crashing the Pattonville line.

Lindbergh 0 - Principia 65 Taylor Field Sat. Nov. 7th.

This was the last game of the 1956 football season for the Flyers. The team was going "great guns" the first quarter and threatened to score. Nevertheless the pattern set by the last few games was not to be broken. Principia was an overpowering team -- champions in their league. The Flyers could not withstand their onslaught. The loss of this game was the final crushing blow to the series of defeats.

Our Cheerleaders

"Shout, students, shout!" such was the cry of the ten varsity cheerleaders as they attempted to revive dampened spirits and brighten the hopes of our boys.

As in the past, the cheerleaders attempted to inspire the fans with their zeal and pep and to guide the enthusiasm into the right channels. This is the reason they go through with such back-breaking gymnastics and yell until they're hoarse.

In addition to the job of cheering the team on to victory, the girls have another very important job, for they are ambassadors for L.H.S. Thus it is their duty to promote friendship and good sportsmanship between our school and others. In order to effectively do this, they must be courteous, neat, co-operative and respectable at all times.

Under the captainship of Pat Sheppard and Pat Clark, the group was divided into two squads. Since three of the girls in one squad played in the band, the first half of the football games, the squads would switch at half time. At basketball games, one squad would cheer for the entire game (the squads took turns in cheering for the home games and the away games.)

They participated in leading the cheers for the pep assemblies and bonfires--well in this case a bonfire, better known as a trash fire!!

Beside these services, the cheerleaders were in charge of teaching the pep club the cheers in order to have an organized cheering section at the athletic games.

They made and sold shakers for the games and distributed copies of the cheers and the school song.

If you think that the duties of a cheerleader are easy, think again. These gals, under the instruction of Mrs. Jost, worked industriously every Wednesday afternoon to revise the cheers and practice together so they would be coordinated and "On the ball!!"

The Flyers started their basketball pre-season play by entering the 15th Annual Bayless High School Tournament. The first game the Flyers took a loss to Coyle, 48 to 67; the second game was the consolation game with Herculaneum which they won by a very good margin.

The Flyers started their league play by sweeping their first three games from Bayless, Eureka and Maryland Heights. But they snapped the winning streak by suffering defeat to Wellston on Dec. 14th. With undampened spirits, they came back to start off 1957 with a bang by beating the highly regarded Hancock team with a close score of 49 to 44. This put the Flyers in first place in South County with a 3-0 record. However, the Flyers were then stymied as they met the Mehlville five. They lost the game by a close score -- two buckets. The month of January was altogether unpredictable and heartbreaking. The team very narrowly missed winning the games, it is true; but nevertheless, they still lost them and it was bitter. On January 29th, Lindbergh started play in the South County Tournament which was held at Affton. Among the schools in Lindbergh's league were Valley Park, Eureka, Hancock, Affton and Mehlville. We coasted by our opponents, Hillsboro, and played Affton in the semi-finals. The Flyers just couldn't seem to squelch the Cougars' fire, as they were beaten by a score of 70 to 45. Lindbergh took fourth place in the tournament. Affton was first; Mehlville was second; Hancock was third. The Flyers had hit the road for another losing streak. They lost once more to Affton's powerhouse and then to Northwest in House Springs.

The Flyers played their last home game against the Mehlville Dragons, Thursday, February 28th. The L.H.S. five were defeated in a double overtime by a score of 69 to 67. Starting as underdogs, the Flyers showed their ability to come from behind and tied up the game with one minute left to play when they were six points behind. Richard Zink sank the tieing basket with seconds left. It was a sweet victory for the Dragons and a tough defeat for the Flyers. But the boys gave it everything they had, and showed what fine ball playing they could do, even when defeat seemed evident.

The team was captained by Dick Brown, center, and led by such able seniors as Paul Richey, forward, and Richard Ray, guard. Some of the outstanding juniors were Richard Rathert, Ray Hollenberg and Marshall Weems.

The basketball team finished with a 6-12 record, but under Mr. Stewart's coaching they showed good sportsmanship and the drive to win.

Wrestling

The wrestling season rolled along quite evenly for L. H.S.'s "Mat Men" who won nine and lost eight meets. Most of the meets were held every Tuesday and Friday afternoon, starting with Maplewood, Nov. 30th. The great coaching of Mr. Van Ronzelen combined with the fighting hearts of the team was responsible for the impressive showing. The team took five fourth places in the State Wrestling Tournament. Although it is only the third year of varsity wrestling, we rank among the best teams in state -- we took eighth place with a total of 38 points in a field of 22 teams. The top "Mat Men" (they also took the fourth places in state) were: Jerry Sisco, sophomore-112; Ron Ebmeier, senior-133; Russ Reaver, junior-138; Thaddaeus Flood, senior-154; Frank (Tank) Follmer, junior-175. The men had a really "tough" schedule, losing to such rugged teams as Kirkwood, Maplewood, and Webster Groves, while they triumphed over Hazelwood, U. City, O'Fallon, Ladue and Riverview Gardens. They downed Ladue twice, with high point differences--the first time trouncing them 43-0. The other losses were to Ferguson, Normandy and Ritenour which are much larger than our school and are rated as best in the state. This year's wrestling squad has a fine record of which it can very well be proud.

Our Track Team

The track team ended the season with a 5-0 mark and finished second in South County under Mr. Jaworski's coaching. They opened the season on Apr. 4th with a 117-1/4 to 68-3/4 victory over Eureka High. After the success of the first meet, the track men literally burned up the cinders and romped to a 167 to 22 point victory over Valley Park, 106-5/6 to 106-1/6 point score over Bayless, 146-2/3 to 66-1/3 point victory over Mehlville and a victory over Hancock.

The track team took second place in the South County Field Day. Mr. Jaworski's boys took two first place trophies. The Junior Division placed first in the 880 relay and set a new record. The boys who ran were: Kopcha, anchor man; Liebrum, Coffey and Dennis Kilper.

The Senior Mile Relay set a new record of 3 minutes 45 seconds breaking Hancock's previous record set in '55. The boys running for Lindbergh were: Davidson, anchor man; Fruman; Hull and Ron Zagar.

Some of the outstanding men of the '56 season were: Don Ochs, who took fourth in the 100 yard dash in South County and was also anchor man on the 880 relay team; Melvin Milne who ran the 220 and 100 yard dashes and was also on the 880 relay team; Richard Ray who took fifth in South County this year, ran the 100 yard dash and was on the 880 relay team; Capt. Tom Hull, one of the key men, who set a new record in running the 880 yard dash in 2 minutes 13 seconds and was on the mile relay team; Steve Kopcha who was first in the 100 yard dash, second in the 200 yard dash and first in the broad jump and Frank Frumar who ran in the Senior Mile Relay.

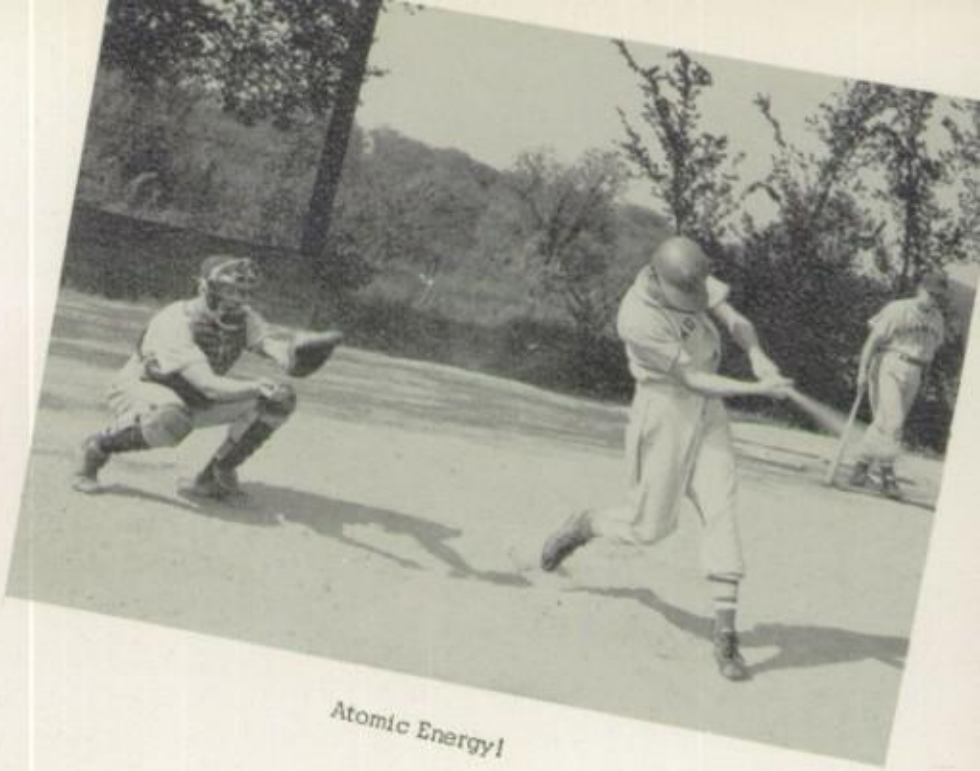
Baseball



Atomic Energy!

Braving dust and mud, the Lindbergh Flyer's cleatmen battled out nine games under the coaching of Mr. Stewart.

Because the baseball team was not in any league, it free lanced and played schools in the South County and various schools in other counties. Four of the games were rained out, but surprisingly enough--there were frequent downpours--the team managed to finish the season with a record of two wins and seven losses.

Although the scheduling of games was changed from previous years when baseball was a fall sport (it used to conflict with football practice), it still has to compete with another sport, track. Therefore, some of the team were also out for track, for example: Buddy Dixon, who lettered in both track and baseball, played left field on the baseball team and did a "neat" job of it. Some of the other fellows out there hustling for baseball were: Ray Hollenberg, shortstop; Paul Richey, catcher; Phil Tosh, center field; Richard Zink, third base; and Roger Eime, a sophomore who did a terrific job in hitting and fielding.

Student Council

With President Tom Hull asking for committee reports between bites of his lunch, the Student Council accomplished their goals and sponsored many enjoyable events. The council assembled during the 12:30 lunch hour and operated by committees. The social committee sponsored the Snow Queen Dance, which was the most successful dance in the school's history.

By creating an athletic committee, season passes were conveniently offered. In order to promote the sales, a Passport Dance was held which required a pass for admission. The committee also handled tickets at the door for athletic games, mimeographed and distributed programs for the games, and sold refreshments. They arranged for the activity bus to away games.

There was a public relations committee for publicizing the council's work by newspaper articles, posters and personal contact.

The Variety Show Committee produced a "whing ding" in entertainment called, "Turn Back The Hands Of Time".

Interesting assemblies were presented, activity awards were bestowed upon hard working students and music drifted across the lunchroom -- ala courtesy of council.

The service club provided the school with everyday use of the audio-visual equipment and tape recorder. The hospitality committee conducted bewildered parents on tours during "NATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK".

Tom Hull, Jim Laacke and Gary Speno were sent, as representatives, to the State Student Council Convention March 15 and 16, for a wonderful time in Kansas City, Missouri. They returned "chock" full of enthusiasm and ideas.

The policy of campaigning for council elections was initiated as was obvious with all the banners, posters, slogans and novelty ideas circulating in the halls. From lollipops to pills to jazz bands the school got in the swing of it and elected:

The new president for 1957 - 1958 is Bob Brockhaus. He and the new council are looking forward to a bigger and better year.

As a crowning glory, Lindbergh was the President of the Suburban Association of Student Councils for the year 1956 - 1957. Myril Bruns served as president. The theme of the year was, "Working Together For Your Student Council", and finished the year with an All-County school dance.

Training Our Future Teachers

The F.T.A. -- the Future Teachers of America -- boasted the largest membership in its entire existence at L.H.S. Starting with three members from the previous year it suddenly grew like "Topsy", and enjoyed a highly successful year.

The first event of the year was an induction and installation tea for the new members. The candle lighting ceremony and pledging was conducted by the old members and Miss Smith, our sponsor. Mr. Amen, our principal, spoke to the group.

Meeting on Wednesdays, the club always seemed to wander down to the Home Ec Room for the high point of the meetings--refreshments.

The day before Easter the Lutheran Orphans Home was visited by the F.T.A. Easter Bunnies. Each bunny (club member) had worked to sew three stuffed animals which were given to the children. Cupcakes, candy, ice cream, soda and Easter eggs, along with games made it a real celebration for the orphans. But it is difficult to say who enjoyed the party more - the children or the FTA'ers.

Representatives attended the F.T.A. convention at University City, and the teacher's meeting at the Washington University Field House. Some attended the County Teachers Association for meetings, and the club exhibited a display on education for the C.T.A.'s March meeting.

This was the fourth year for the Susan Elizabeth Blow Club. It was also the fourth year Miss Smith served as its sponsor.

The officers for 1956-1957 were: Diana Toma, President; Jean Faveere, Vice-President; Sandy Els, Secretary; Maryln Randall, Treasurer; Carol Kissling, Librarian.

Membership is composed of students who assist Mrs. McDorman in the various library duties.

The purpose of the organization is to become better acquainted with the library and to promote better relations among the librarians.

There were after-school meetings twice a month and evening meetings in the members' homes once a month.

Objects of the Key Club

The Key Club is an international organization sponsored by the Kiwanis International. This particular club is being sponsored by the Gravois Kiwanis. The objects of the Key Club are:

To develop initiative and leadership.
To provide experience in living and working together.
To serve the school and community.
To co-operate with the school principal.
To prepare for useful citizenship.

Membership is limited to boys from Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes who have leadership, above average grades and the recommendation of their teachers.

The Drive for Muscular Dystrophy, sponsored by the Key Club was quite a success. The total amount collected was $332.10.

Little Rock was the convention site of the Missouri-Arkansas District of the Key Club International for 1957. Delegates were Myron Bruns and Darryl Fabick.

The Club sponsored a Career Day in May with representatives from various vocational fields acquainting the students with the preparations and demands necessary in their chosen work.

The Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Stewart, and led by President Tom Hull, promoted the ideals of good sportsmanship -- this is the purpose of the club.

The club was established in 1952; since then it has continued to stand as a symbol of honor, sportsmanship, leadership and courtesy. Its membership consists of those boys who were so outstanding in athletic achievement that they received a varsity letter.

Every Friday the standard green and gold sweaters could be seen in Lindbergh's halls -- Friday having been officially designated as Letter Sweater Day. The Lettermen's Club established the correct and proper wearing of the sweater.

The club stands ready to offer its hand to the school and other organizations. This year the boys ushered at athletic games -- they were always "Johnny-on-the-spot" to assist bewildered patrons and were easily identified by their "usher" ribbons.

This spring the Lettermen's Club held their second annual Lettermen's Club Banquet in Lindbergh High School's cafeteria where they were served food prepared by the cooks. Letter certificates (with the exception of football awards which had previously been given out) were presented. Instead of guest speakers, four lettermen spoke to the group. There was a large turnout for the dinner, with the superintendent, the principals, the Board of Education, the coaches and boys who participated in sports but did not letter.

Various schools reported their progress in developing a topic of the State Convention this year, "Safety Cam-ns". Lindbergh exhibited and explained a bulletin-board-display on sources of safety information.

It was suggested to have County Council Workshops in future (which would be of the same general type as the wide week) in order to help give more specific aid to councils.

The mixed ensemble rated A's on everything except for one B plus, which was for the selection of the song.

The Mixed Double Quartet received all A's on one song and all B's on their second song. The comments were that the song "Somebody's Knocking At Your Dood," showed a good ensembe in pitch, blend and balance even if someone did forget the words!

The judge was Helen Louise Grabes.

This isn't a complete report of the singing groups. It is just to give the students of Lindbergh an idea of the work Mr. Reep is doing with the students.

1957 Spirit Staff

When Myril Bruns took over the editorship of the 1957 Spirit, she decided that a new leaf was going to be turned over. She favored a small staff so that there would be no "dead weight". This was a change from the large staffs of the past and the complaints that a couple of students always ended up doing all the work anyway. So the staff was smaller.

She gave the staff a pep talk--"This is going to be a record in pictures and writing of everything we do this year! Pictures of sports, classes, parties and just plain everything! Action pictures, interest and life is what we want! This is going to be a bigger, better book!!"

How little she realized what she was about to undertake. The school heartily agreed that they wanted such events as the prom and graduation in the yearbooks, even if it meant the arrival of the books in the middle of the summer. Nine months--and several thousand pictures--later she was still slaving over the odds and ends of getting it to press.

Well, the book's finally out--much to her relief--at least she knows how to spell all the names in the school, has learned more about football than she ever knew before in her life, and has established a second home at the Vincent Price Studio. Now it is your book for your moments to remember--she has a good many of this book; but anything was worth it, if it serves its purpose in bringing the happy memories of this year alive again for you, the reader.

Vocal Groups

This was a year of progress for the choral groups at L.H.S. Several new groups were organized under the direction of Mr. Reep, who came to Lindbergh from Higginsville High School.

Chorus students who had a good tone quality and an advanced understanding of music comprised the A Capella Choir. The group met before school at 8 A.M. Tuesday and Thursday. It presented the "Creation" for the Variety Show and performed for the P.T.A.

There were two groups which had the honor of being the first of their type at L.H.S. One was a very refreshing girls' ensemble; the other was a double mixed quartet. These groups performed for the P.T.A., the neighborhood churches and the girls sang for the graduation ceremonies. Both participated in the County Music Festival where they received highest criticisms and were commended on their fine interpretations and enthusiastic spirit. They often combined voices to form a small choir.

The whole school was very proud of the recognition given Mr. Reep's vocal groups. The year's music program was very popular and successful. Under his capable leadership a multitude of good things lie in store for the coming year--including a course in Music Appreciation.

Junior Band

The Junior Band consists of about fifty members from the 7th and 8th grades. They played in the County Festival on April 9th, 1957 in Wellston. Their performance was very outstanding and they were higly praised.

The Junior Band made great strides this year and played at a Freshman Football Game. Some of the first chair people played with the Senior Band for school functions and games; and some joined the Dance Band. They participated in the Annual Spring Concert for the R-8 District, Friday, May 10, 1957.

Strike Up The Band

The Senior Band is one of the most colorful groups in the school. It performs for pep assemblies and all home football games--this year for the first time they marched in patterns and did precision drilling. They have a wide range of repertoire having mastered compositions in the fields of classical contemporary, standard marches and popular favorites. Their ability was demonstrated at the Annual Band Concert for the R-8 District, May 10, in the L.H.S. auditorium. The band participated in the All-County Band Festival. They were playing against the biggest and best bands in the county and held their own. The critic was amazed at the progress made in a short time.

Let's Dance

L.H.S. had for the first time an organized dance band which was under the direction of Jerome Ferronato. There was some really stiff competition in the tryouts. The chosen 19 had their first rehearsal Oct. 17th. The musicians range from the 7th through the 12th grades.

They played for the Variety Show, Fashion Show, Teen Town, Passport Dance, Annual Band Concert, P.T.A., Suburban Student Council's dance, churches and private engagements. All their practicing was done after school hours.

They have a versatile style and can "beat out" any tempo, fast or slow, old or new.

Prom -- 1957

On Saturday night, May 3rd, a parade of shining cars rolled up to the door of the Biltmore Country Club and deposited radiant young ladies and their escorts at the 1957 Junior-Senior Prom.

The Prom highlighted the school's social year with a banquet and formal dance. It is an annual affair given in honor of the Seniors by the Junior Class. For the first time the Seniors enjoyed a dance which had all expenses paid--thanks to the overflowing Junior Class treasury.

The theme was "Let's Go Calypso"--very obvious from all the straw hats and sea shells hanging on the walls, and the miniature bongo drums gracing the tables. To complete the atmosphere, a student combo produced authentic mood music and a lot of laughs -- anyone for Stan Freeberg's "Day O?"

The Queen and her Court Dance

But the moment anticipated by everyone was the crowning of the queen. The retiring queen Jo Ollinger entered, escorted by Jack Kinder. Jo, a freshman at Missouri University this year and Jack, a freshman at the Missouri School of Mines, are both graduates of the class of '56. Then the maids were escorted to their places in the court. Finally, the new queen, Pat Clark, escorted by Jim Burmeister was crowned by Jo. The new queen and her court were chosen by the vote of the Junior and Senior classes. The Prom was the climax of the Senior's four years at L.H.S. and the final adieu to their high school dances.
